

IMMOFINANZ Group: Christian Traunfellner new Director of Asset Management Office / Logistics

Christian Traunfellner (43) was appointed Director of Asset Management for the Office and Logistics Portfolio of IMMOFINANZ Group at the beginning of October. He succeeds Dietmar Reindl, who was appointed to the Executive Board as of 1 May 2014.

Christian Traunfellner, who studied Laws and holds an MBA, can look back on many years of experience on the international commercial property and transaction market. Over the past nine years he served as a member of the management board of UNIQA Real Estate AG, where he played a key role in the company's development. His previous positions involved asset management at Raiffeisen Centrobank AG and UNIQA Versicherung AG.

In his new function Traunfellner will be responsible for the management and value growth of a portfolio with a current fair value of approx. EUR 2.6 billion. His work will be based on the strong customer-oriented approach of asset management in IMMOFINANZ Group as well as the continuing decentralisation and related market proximity in the company's core countries.
