The right to information may be exercised during the virtual shareholders' meeting in accordance with the modalities set out under point C.3 by the shareholders themselves.

4. Motions by shareholders during the shareholders' meeting (section 119 Austrian Stock Corporation Act)

Every shareholder – regardless of the shareholding amount – has the right to bring forward motions in respect to each item on the agenda at the shareholders' meeting. In the virtual shareholders' meeting on 12 July 2022, shareholders can only submit motions through one of the special proxies (see the explanations under point C).

If several motions are made to the same agenda item, section 119 para 3 Austrian Stock Corporation Act allows the chairman to determine the order in which the motions are voted on.

Each shareholder who is entitled to participate in the virtual shareholders' meeting and who has proven this in accordance with the provisions stated in point E of this invitation, has the right to grant power of attorney (proxy) for the shareholders' meeting (section 113 Austrian Stock Corporation Act).

For the virtual shareholders' meeting on 12 July 2022 exclusively one of the special proxies named under point C.2 above can be authorised via the communication channels mentioned there to cast votes, submit motions for resolutions or raise an objection during the virtual shareholders' meeting.

In accordance with section 3 para 4 COVID-19-GesV it is not possible to authorise persons other than the four special proxies to exercise these rights in the virtual shareholders' meeting. It is permissible, however, to authorise other persons to exercise other rights, in particular the right to information.

If shareholders authorise persons to represent them other than one of the four special proxies named by the company, such as the custodian bank, an effective proxy chain (sub-proxy) must exist to ensure that one of the four special proxies is authorised to exercise the right to vote, to submit motions for resolutions and to make an objection in the virtual shareholders' meeting itself.

The power of attorney (proxy) must be submitted in text form (section 13 para 2 Austrian Stock Corporation Act). If a shareholder has granted power of attorney (proxy) to his/her custodian bank (section 10a Austrian Stock Corporation Act), it is sufficient if, in addition to the deposit confirmation, the bank declares that it has been authorised as a proxy representative in the manner intended for its transmission to the company.

Shareholders have the option to revoke their power of attorney (proxy). The rules for proxy authorisation apply mutatis mutandis to its revocation. The revocation only becomes effective upon receipt by the company.

The company has provided a specific form for granting power of attorney (proxy) to the special proxies on its website (www.immofinanz.com). Shareholders are kindly asked to use this form.
